

“We must have perseverance and above all confidence in ourselves. We must believe that we are gifted for something and that this thing must be attained.”

— Marie Curie

“Courage is like — it’s a habitus, a habit, a virtue: you get it by courageous acts. It’s like you learn to swim by swimming. You learn courage by couraging.”

—Marie M. Daly

“This job is a great scientific adventure. But it’s also a great human adventure.”

— Fabiola Gianotti

“All sorts of things can happen when you’re open to new ideas and playing around with things.”

— Stephanie Kwolek

“Basically, I have been compelled by curiosity.”

— Mary Leakey

“I tell young people: Do not think of yourself, think of others. Think of the future that awaits you, think about what you can do and do not fear anything.”

— Rita Levi

“All creative people want to do the unexpected.”

— Hedy Lamarr

“Women are always told, ‘You’re not going to make it, it’s too difficult, you can’t do that, don’t enter this competition, you’ll never win it,’ – they need confidence in themselves and people around them to help them to get on.”

— Zaha Hadid

“Embrace feedback – not just the positives, but also constructive criticism. Do not settle until you’ve found the niche in engineering that you shine in.”

— Olivia Collier

“I would like to be remembered as someone who was not afraid to do what she wanted to do, and as someone who took risks along the way in order to achieve her goals.”

— Sally Ride

“An engineer is a problem solver. Not only can engineering be used to solve problems, but engineers can work to “make the world a better place, improve conditions and improve lives.”

— Eleanor K. Baum

“You can absolutely be what you can’t see! That’s what innovators and disruptors do.”

— Kimberly Bryant

“We need to understand that if we all work on inclusion together, it’s going to be faster, broader, better, and more thorough than anything we can do on our own.”

— Ellen Pao

“It is invaluable to have a friend who shares your interests and helps you stay motivated.”

— Maryam Mirzakhani

“Let us choose for ourselves our path in life, and let us try to strew that path with flowers.”

— Emilie Du Chatelet

“Reserve your right to think, for even to think wrongly is better than not to think at all.”

— Hypatia
